3. Conclusions drawn from the detailed monitoring of the quality of execution obtained

The below are applicable for all financial instruments offered. It is however important to note that 100% of the orders received and transmitted were directed orders.

3.1. Execution factors

When executing clients' orders the Company takes into consideration the following execution factors:

- a) Price;
- b) Cost;
- c) Speed of execution;
- d) Likelihood of execution;
- e) Likelihood of settlement;
- f) Size of Order;
- g) Nature of Order; and
- h) Market Impact.

The Company acted as in accordance with its Order Execution Policy and executed trade orders received by taking into consideration all of the above factors giving, however, primary consideration to price and cost. In cases where the company receives directed orders the above executions factors are secondary.

3.2. Close links / conflicts of interest / common ownership

The Company does not have any close links, conflicts of interests or common ownerships with any execution venues used to execute orders.

3.3. Arrangements with execution venues regarding inducements

There are no specific arrangements with any execution venue regarding payments made or received, discounts, remuneration, rebates, non-monetary benefits or other incentives that may influence the Company to use an execution venue over another.

3.4. Change of execution venues

During 2018 the Company had a contractual agreement with the below execution venues:

Ref. No.	Name of the Execution Venue	Country of Origin
1	Argus Stockbrokers Ltd	Cyprus
2	Julius Baer	Switzerland

3.5. Order execution per client categorization

During 2018 the Company executed orders for both for retail clients only and 100% of the orders were directed orders.

3.6. Precedence of other criteria over price and cost

As noted in Section 3.1. above, the company acted by giving prime consideration to price and cost when executing clients' orders wherever possible.

3.7. Data analysis

The Company did not use any RTS 27 or RTS 28 reports produced by execution venues or brokers during 2017, as such reports were not available.

3.8. Usage of output of a consolidated tape provider

The Company has not used output of a consolidated tape provider established under Article 65 of Directive 2014/65/EU ("MiFID II).
